

Three cheers for the new school! A scene at the combined opening ceremony for Milton and Eveline, held in the Eveline quadrangle after Lady (Eveline) Milton had unlocked the doors with a silver key and named the school. The day, July 25, 1910, was a memorable one for Bulawayo. Five hundred guests were invited to the ceremony, and when it was over, the company adjourned to Milton, to see the doors unlocked and the flag hoisted there.
