

Addison, Kenneth Bertram (1923-2007)

Ken Addison was born in Salisbury in the then Southern Rhodesia. He attended Prince Edward High School and Milton High School in Bulawayo. In 1940, he volunteered for military service and served in East Africa and Burma. In 1945 he enrolled in Wits as one of the 3 year Donga Docs' under Prof John Phillips. After graduation he joined the Agricultural Department in Rhodesia as a Pasture Research Officer. In 1963, Ken and his family emigrated to Queensland Australia. He worked as senior agristologist for the department of primary industries and was the officer in charge at Brian Pastures Research Station in Gayndah, Queensland until his retirement in 1983. Ken passed away on the 4th September 2007.